CLERGY ENGAGEMENT

was a hot topic and sparked great insight from Reverend Nash of Bethlehem Baptist Church on how we can galvanize the church in our efforts for voter empowerment.

Brandon Upson,
Community Advocate & Organizer

According to Nash, we must pay due attention to and support the needs of congregations and the broader community.

We cannot talk about the importance of voting without also talking about the issues folks are facing every day – and tangible solutions.

Thank You

for your warm welcome, valuable insight, and rich fellowship!
